THE RENO RELIEF BALL.

We understand that there were sixty tickets taken in at the door of the Opera House on the occasion of the Reno Relief Ball, night before last. Just what the receipts were we do not know. We were unable to run across anybody yesterday who knew anything about the business; and the wind blew so hard and made such a disturbance as to drown all whispered surmises concerning the amount realized.

DAMAGE BY THE WIND ABOUT GENOA.—We understand that the prevailing tempest of wind wrought a good deal of promiscuous mischief in and about Genoa yesterday. We hear of a barn and several fences blown down, also some lengths of the wood flumes thereabout. When it blows hard across the Sierra they always catch it worse in Genoa than we do. We suppose that the contour of the country has something to do with this excessive violence of the wind.

TO BE TRIED.—Flynn, who killed Bethards at the Prison, will be arraigned for trial tomorrow. William Hart, indicted for assault to kill a colored man, will be tried on the 11th. Johnny Davis, the man who tried to club a young German to death at Winston's faro table, will face the court on the 12th; and the trials of Butts and King for an alleged violation of the election law will take place on the 13th and 14th respectively.

AWNING BLOWN DOWN.—Last evening the awning in front of Mrs. Jacob Shoyer & Co.'s dry goods house was blown down by the wind. Doubtless we shall hear of many other like casualties resulting from the persistent blowing of our blustering visitor, Eolus.

RECOVERED HIS PLUNDER.—We were informed yesterday at the Sheriff's office that Senator King, whose rooms at the Eureka Mill had been plundered of his wearing apparel, had recovered the stolen goods. "There is a divinity doth hedge a King."

The regular service will be held in the A. M. E. Church to-day at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. The subject for the evening: "The New Birth, its Nature and Necessity."

M. T. WEIR, Pastor.

DAN LYON WILL DEPART HENCE by the "local" railroad for Virginia this morning. Dan will come in for the Lyon's share of praise for doing his duty like an honest man, when he gets home.

WILL GO TO HIS PLACE.—We are informed that Hon. R. M. Daggett will take his departure for Washington to attend the extra session of Congress to-day.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH.—Services to-day at the usual hours. Sunday-school at 12:30. Everybody invited. Geo. R. DAVIS, Rector.

THE GEORGIA MINSTRELS had a big house at Pipers on Friday night. Evidently they have made a big hit in Virginia.

SERVICES in the Presbyterian Church to-day at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

WHAT THE DAY BRINGS FORTH

The wind fills all the air what time the snow is not driven before the gusty blast. All that is new is blown clean away, desertward. Here and there the forlorn gatherer of trifles pitches upon a sojourner from abroad, and in a half hopeful mood "prospects" him for tidings and tell-tale stuff. He finds his subject weather-bound, kept from the haven of home by adverse winds, and therefore distracted, dull and listless. The mountain tops, it is said, are four feet deep in new snow, which is not only worth recording but worth regarding as a something saved against the dry weather when all signs fail. Speaking of signs, all of the species which were not stoutly secured, fetched away to the leeward yesterday. "Time to double reef everything" cries a man of sea-going turn, as with great coat snugly clewed down against the weather and hat backstayed with a firm grip of the starboard grappling gear, he leans up against the driving gale and drifts by his acquaintance scudding by on t'other tack. All of which verifies the rather cheap and somewhat idle prophecy ventured with a microscopic modicum of originality by Everybody a fortnight or so ago when the month of February was making an ostentatious showing of its amiability by an unseasonable mildness and tenderness of demeanor. (We suspect that February had a rather priggish hope of being rewarded by a relief bill or such-like gratuity from the Legislature.) March resents these unseasonable impertinences. Why, even the pussy willows ventured out under the deceitful promises of that fickle month. They are shivering now for their presumption. There is some hope now of fruit in the summer-time—which seems blown so far away. Meantime the sound breaks not infrequently upon the ear, of gruesome oil-cans groaning with a dull, tin pain as the wind beats them about with unsparing thumps against wood-piles, posts and the sharp angles of brick and wooden walls. These neglected and battered utensils fairly grunt with agony as the merciless wind sends them, end upon end and sidewise with quick and jerky jumps and stumbles, down toward Nowhere. Men who are vain of their long beards grasp them with the hand which is not holding on their hats, as they struggle with the wind; lodgers in upper stories of houses are conscious of a constant rocking of their resting place in the night-time tempest; women clew up their out-rigging and furl all their light sails on the street corners and under the lee of shops and dwellings before they venture upon the tempest-swept crosswalk; Mint drops of both sexes would like to have it in their way to put John Sherman in the stocks with his face to the weather and his mouth open, just to let him know what he is deserving of; dogs snuggle up in warm corners and are as meek as rabbits; stage drivers come in looking about the face as if Old Boreas had said something to put them to the blush; hens huddle close and with hen-like stupidity and helplessness in the dark parts of the accustomed coop, and even chancieer forgets to strut and crow. Everybody on the street seems in the most precipitate haste. Now that the Legislature has adjourned, the bar-room brigade return to their old haunts and take on that look of despondent expectancy which is so sad a counterfeited of hope and so woeful a substitute for honest despair. The drinks are less frequent of gratuitous dispensation; general invitations have lapsed into the old condition of unusual occurrences; and Leadville, the only remaining hope of the hopeless, seems to loom up in the far distance as something to be hoped for if not to be visited "in the Spring."

Every window rattles; every tree and twig bends; weather-side doors are tightened past opening, while their cracks and crannies let in little drops of water and little grains of sand which make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land; cats shake both paws with a sort of shudder when they have regained the warmth of the coveted sitting-room; and everybody says "Whew! how it does blow!"

JOHN H. BUITMAN, a miner in the Silver Hill was killed by a crushing blow upon his head by a pump rod. He was a German, a freemason and a bachelor.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE

EFFECTED BY CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS COMPANY.—W. J. HORNE, Proprietor.—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of Rupture of thirty years standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period; and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect support. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on, and feel that I am perfectly cured. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer any one to me on the subject of their merits. I am, truly yours, ALFRED J. BUTLER, Chief Mail Clerk U. S. F. Daily Evening Post, San Francisco, July 20, 1878.

A Physician's 45 Years' Experience.

COLUMBIA, Tuolumne Co., July 16, 1878. W. J. HORNE, Esq.—Dear Sir: For some time past we have used in my practice the California Elastic Truss, with entire satisfaction in most cases of complicated hernia of both sexes. During a practice of forty five years I have found no truss that would, with the same ease and certainty, retain the required adjustment, the pressure being always under the immediate control of the patient. The simplicity and ease of application is of itself a guarantee to every experienced physician. I have the honor to remit by mail the amount due, knowing that I contribute to the alleviation of afflicted humanity. Yours, truly, J. P. THIBTS, M. D.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue and Price List giving Full Information and Rules for Mensage.

N. B.—The California Elastic Truss is not for sale by any Druggist in Carson City. They prefer to sell Eastern trash, on which they can make a large profit. Send direct to the
